Subject: Meeting of the Working Group on export Promotion and Facilitation in New Delhi

Dear Sir,

In order to improve and look into issues being faced by exporters, Central Board of Indirect Taxes & Customs, Drawback division Govt. of India has constituted a working Group on to look into issues being faced by exporters on various aspects as below.

- a) Customs procedures and facilitation.
- b) Impact of FTAs signed by India.
- c) Tariff concessions vis-à-vis non-tariff barriers faced by exporters in export markets.
- d) Need for non-preferential rules of origin and their structure.
- e) Quality/cost of services provided by various intermediaries in the Customs environment like Customs brokers, shipping lines, forwarders, custodians, etc
- f) Facilitation of e-commerce exports.
- g) Manufacture-in-bond under section 65 of the Customs Act.
- h) Any other export related issue.

In this regard Central Board of Indirect Taxes & Customs (CBIC) is seeking inputs and suggestions from exporters and also member (Tax Policy), CBIC will interact with the exporters and EPCs on 29.04.2019 at New Custom House, New Delhi at 3.00PM.

We request you to kindly share your inputs and suggestions by return mail till Thursday 25th April 2019.

This is for your kind information please.
